You're Invited to Our 2nd Annual Fox Meadow POETRY PARK LIVE!

Who: Fox Meadow Students and Families

What: Summer Family Literacy Fun

When: Saturday, July 15, 2017 at 11:00 a.m.

Where: Blackhawk Park, South Elgin

Why: To Celebrate Summer Reading

Come join us on the park bench as we share poetry from our summer book stacks! We invite our Fox Meadow students, families, and staff to read aloud favorite poems from books or from writer's notebooks in the park.

Bring along your Gail Borden summer reading logs and receive a special treat! We look forward to celebrating your continued reading throughout the summer! Starbucks will also provide lemonade for us to sip while we savor poetry together in the sunshine! Consider staying a bit longer at the park after our Poetry Park Live, to have a "book-nic" with your family: books + lunch = "book-nic" ☺ Bring a blanket or a beach towel to sit on!

If you would like to help out or you have any questions, please feel free to contact Mrs. Thompson at marciathompson@u-46.org.

Also, as you are busy with summer cleaning at home, please gather books for all grades K-6th to donate at our famous book swaps! Our next one will take place this coming fall, so start saving! We look forward to both new and old favorite family literacy activities on the way; we can hardly wait to share all of the fun yet to come next school year 2017-18!

Happy summer reading! Make poetry picture books and poetry anthologies a part of your daily book stack to enjoy as a family. Notice the names of your favorite poets/authors. Meet you at the park SOON!
